

Customer Owned Distribution Facilities Inspection and Testing

OMLPS routinely performs inspection and testing services on its own distribution system to maintain and keep system in tip-top shape. Do not leave something as critical as your facility's power supply to chance. Let OMLPS put their experience to work for you by providing a variety of testing and inspection services on your electric distribution equipment.

Our Services

Protection Relay Testing

High Voltage Testing

- Hi Pot testing up to 100 kV- Megger testing up to 5 kV Transformer Oil Breakdown Test

Transformer Maintenance

- Oil drying and filtration- Nitrogen blanket maintenance- Oil testing Benefits of Service

Provides baseline information during equipment commissioning.

Identifies problems before they become catastrophic failures.

Reduces the risk of expensive equipment replacement.

Reduces down-time.

Reduces safety and fire hazards.

Reduces risk of environmental contamination (oil spills).